I'd never imagined that love was in the cards...

And I don't know quite what to do with it. But it seems I've pushed him away one two many times, and now when I need him the most, he may not be there.

And the truth is, I don't just love him. I need him.

But will that be enough to keep us both safe?

The Other Fighter is a novel told in three parts. This is part three of three.
