In our modern day of Christianity it appears that the church is plagued with immature, selfish and hypocritical people who claim they have a relationship with Jesus. Unbelievers are looking for better alternatives to their lives than the God whom we serve. This book is written to offset the Christian misrepresentation and to challenge believers to live their absolute best life by refusing to settle for a "what can I continue to do and still make it in to heaven" lifestyle. The entire world subconsciously cries for believers to grow up, mature and model the image of the only true Savior, Jesus the Christ. The sons of God must be manifested in the earth (Rom 8:19). Mature Christians can be recognized. King David says we can "Mark the perfect man" (Psalm 37:37). In this day and time, we must carefully observe the life of those who we are following. In this book we will identify the characteristics of a "perfect man" so that you can "mark" him. Ultimately, you will discover that the "perfect man" traits are hidden within your heart and are ready to be sculptured out. All you need is the right mentor who can unlock the treasure of great, God-given qualities that you have resting inside. Don't live beneath who you are. There's a greater you inside - a perfect man whose life culminates to a peaceful, fulfilled end.
