It's amazing how we can make ourselves become alright with less than. We convince ourselves that it's fine and that we don't deserve more or anything better. That is a trick from the enemy designed to keep you in the rat race, never allowing you to realize who you are. His plan is to never allow you to find your way to your divine placement so that you can become all that you were created to be. I know this road all too well. I stayed on it for years giving myself over to mediocrity and weakness. Those weaknesses lead me down dark paths and dead end roads. I made choices that set me on swift routes of uncertainty, ultimately bringing me face to face with the enemy of my soul. So, as I take you to a specific place and time in my life, I want to bring you into my world of Faith and Belief in God. You will be introduced to the place where I developed a deeper relationship with Him. This is the place where I became the Faith Kid. So won't you join me on this journey of My Faith Revealed, Life After Death.
