Pyramid Lake Paul Draker

DARPA's bad-boy genius, Trevor Lennox, has built the government a top-secret supercomputer that can read lies and hidden secrets right off your face. But Trevor has no problem lying to his bosses, or using his invention to help his seven-year-old daughter when she faces a serious problem in school.

After brilliant, beautiful Cassie Winnemucca is assigned to Trevor's project, he suspects she's his replacement. But a series of gruesome murders rocks their secret government laboratory, and soon Trevor finds himself fighting to protect everyone and everything he cares about.

Shadowy forces have their own hidden plans for his face-reading technology... and there is no one they won't kill for it.

Peggy Gillman:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's spirit or real their hobby. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Pyramid Lake can make you sense more interested to read.
