"THE author hopes he shall escape the charge of presumption for dedicating this little book to you, as it treats of one, to whom, you, of all on earth, were, and still are, the most tenderly related. One of my reasons for writing this sketch of your husband's life, and virtues, is derived from those virtues themselves, which are such true brilliants as to assure me, that even in my simple stile, like diamonds on the earth, they will so play their part at sparkling, that many an honest youth shall long to place them in the casket of his own bosom." This is an edition of a classical book first published in the eighteenth century.
