Tribe (Tribe 1) Audrina Cole
Vampire.

Ember Perry hates the word. It makes her feel like some kind of teenage freak. A monster. But she and her family are Healers—their driving desire is to relieve suffering. There's no denying there is a dark side to the gift of healing, which forces them to hide their abilities, or risk exposing what they really are. But what good is the power to heal, if you're never allowed to use it to save lives?

Then Ember meets Alex Baxter, and feels a connection with him that touches her soul. She can't quell the overwhelming urge to save him, regardless of the danger. Soon Ember wonders if she made the right decision. Not only is Alex recovering, but he's healing at an alarming rate—morphing from a sickly teen into a strapping specimen of manhood in mere weeks, and leaving Ember baffled.

Breaking the rules has consequences, and it isn't long before Alex is asking questions, and Ember fears the worst. Has she bought one person's life with the blood of her family, and of the entire Healer tribe?
