Unseen: (The Heights Book 1) | Vampire Romance Lauren Stewart

The moment Addison finds a nearly dusted vampire in the garbage outside her building, her screwed up life becomes a lot more dangerous.

She should be safe with him chained to her bed until she decides what to do with him. But if she'd known he's Rhyse — the vampire king and leader of the supernatural world — what she should do is leave him in the garbage until the sun comes up.

In his three-hundred year reign, Rhyse has never needed help, especially from someone as useless as a human. But weakened from his wound and unaware of who tried to kill him, he'll need more from his captor than just her blood.

He discovers that Addison is capable of more than anyone knew, including her. Within Addison lies enough power to bring down their entire world. That's when both of their lives become a lot more dangerous.

Two opposites brought together by accident.

Two enemies need each other to survive.

Two people share a love not destined to be.

Unseen is the first book in a new paranormal series that is a mixture of urban fantasy and paranormal romance, with multiple interlocking stories and characters and plot lines. We'll get to know different races of supernatural beings, each with their own cultures, hierarchy, and attributes. It's not a series about only two people, or three, or even four. This is a world in which everyone will have to pick a side.

Each book centers around a different couple as the two sides intersect and individuals collide. Here's a general overview of which character is the primary focus of each book.

Unseen: Addison & Rhyse, the most unlikely of allies

Unearthed: Davyn, a demon - Now available

Unwanted: Noah, a seer-turned-werewolf

Unforgiven: Micah, an angel

Unchained: Logan, a seer

Unturned: Graham, a vampire

Unknown: Kaia, a mage

How many more there will be after this depends on how long it takes to tell the story of this world. In between the novels will be novellas about a few other interesting creatures, like ghosts, mermaids, witches, banshees, etc. If you decide to come along for the ride - which I hope you will - make sure to hold on tight...and be ready to laugh a lot along the way.
