Memoirs of the Bastille Simon-Nicolas-Henri Linguet

The book that brought down the Bastille... Linguet, a journalist, was in the Bastille for 20 months and went right to London when he was released - to write this book, which was an immediate sensation: an inside look at France's most famous prison, just years before its fall. This new edition includes extensive notes - many derived from other accounts of the Bastille -, appendices and illustrations. (PRINT Version)
