Janice went to the islands to escape her divorce and boring life. She swore she'd do something crazy and unpredictable.

A chance encounter puts her in the middle of a photo shoot with a hot model named Carlo. Their sexy teasing quickly goes farther than she ever imagined she'd go where anyone could see. Should she cool things down or go for it?

EXCERPT:

The photographer hefted a bulky sack and handed it to Carlo. "Here's your fake cash. I'd like to start with you standing there with a pile of money at your feet and Linda with her rifle looking fierce. Wave some of the bundles around a bit."

She followed Carlo to a spot a dozen feet in front of the camera. While he arranged the pile of counterfeit currency, she hefted the rifle and looked at Preston. "How do you want me to hold it?"

He crouched behind the camera. "Keep it down by your waist and aim at the camera. Try to look dangerous."

Her eyes narrowed and she grinned as she imagined him running as she shot up his camera.

"Perfect! Carlo, show me the money."

Carlo thumbed the bills under his nose and sniffed them with a wicked grin that turned her insides to mush. Preston started taking pictures. The motorized whir of the camera should've made her tense up, but it relaxed her instead. It was as if she were play-acting.

The cameraman's snarky tone vanished as he got into his work. He had them move and pose in several different positions: her squatting in front of Carlo, him hiding behind her, her with both pistols out like a deranged gunfighter, and even her taking the money at gunpoint.

"Okay," Preston said. "Let's get some sexy poses. Carlo, on your back. Linda, crawl on top of him and vamp for the camera."

She planted her knees on either side of Carlo and sat, sending her most sultry smile toward the camera. Her pussy rubbed against his cock, which was rock hard.

He definitely wasn't gay.

She couldn't stop the almost involuntary rocking of her hips, savoring the sensation as his cock rubbed against her most sensitive spot.

He gave a muted gasp of surprise. “Oh, you play dirty. Two can play that game.”

His hands traveled up her legs to her ass and ground her against him. That shot a bolt of heat right through her. Her damp pussy throbbed with need as her body decided this wasn't playing anymore. This was sex.

“Oh, yeah, that's nice,” Preston said, his camera whirring. “Keep it up. Act like you're seducing him.”

The photographer's voice startled her. She'd forgotten he was there. She needed to keep his presence in mind and keep things from going too far.

Janice leaned forward until her breasts pressed against Carlo's chest. Those dark, mysterious eyes were wide with desire. Just like her own, she imagined. She looked right into his them as she dry humped him for the camera.
