After a failed attempt to take over a nuclear power station in the United Kingdom the intention being to cause a meltdown of the reactor. The leader of the terrorists Ali-Hassan, given the code name by the security forces The Fox is in disgrace and the Iraqi secret police (Mahabharata) along with an anti terrorist organisation have vested interests in locating him.

Three men invalided as a direct result of the power station plan take it upon themselves to follow up where the authorities failed in the attempt to apprehend The Fox, and with the help of a mysterious French lady corner him in Paris.

The thirst for revenge abates when The Fox bargains for his life .He is prepared to give details of a more sinister plan that is in the final stages to be launched also against the populace of the UK.This would be a test for an attack on the USA.The method would be the distribution of the chemical Sarin which Saddams half brother Chemical Ali had used against the Kurdish population with tragic results.

With his name still on the most wanted list The Fox is smuggled back into the UK.He is handed over to the security forces who now have to decide. Negotiate with a known terrorist and proven murderer, or put at risk thousands of lives by rejecting the chance to glean information from him. To emphasise that the threat is genuine The Fox gives away as a sample enough information that results in the capture of one of the terrorist at large. The rest of the members of the team he will reveal only when his demands are met. Immunity, a new identity and a substantial sum of money.
