San Matias was a master commander and tactician in an army that for the most part, was thought to be non-existent. Talked of only in a conspiracy theory, and sometimes described as the Illuminati; his job was to make sure the New World Order arrived right on schedule. Unfortunately for the 13 ruling families that owned him, he decided that he could undertake their evil orders no more. Tortured, bloody and broken, he was cast into the streets to die. Now San Matias is back, he is angry, he is violent, and he wants revenge on the 13 men that rule the world. His battle ground of choice, is a small western country at the bottom of the world known as New Zealand

To Inspector Gibbs of the New Zealand Police, falls the task of trying to unravel San Matias' sinister plan, in a game far more deadly than anything he has ever encountered. Nevertheless, he is determined to succeed - if he can stay alive long enough.
