It has been five years since the events in 'Lord of Arradon' saw Argot restored to the throne of the Kingdom. The world has moved on but with the changes has come new threats.

Hakkido's Empire in the east is at the brink of a civil war that could result in a million man army being turned towards the West.

As Talain races across the continent to aid his friend unaware that the Kingdom he has sworn to protect is now under the greatest threat in history. A War-Mage of unspeakable power has returned the Demons to Ralis, unleashing them in an horrific attack on the capital.

Facing magic on an unprecedented scale even the Council of Magi are powerless to aid in the salvation of Ralis.

Only one man has the arcane knowledge to save the planet from extinction. Kirin Sars has earned a title few ever achieve.

Archmage.

He also holds a title that few hold for long.

Renegade.

Under an automatic sentence of death Kirin Sars is hunted across the world for breaching every law of magic in existence and learning wizardry that could destroy a world.

Or save it.
