Left pregnant and alone, Storie has two choices, sink or swim. Since neither losing nor going back to her old lifestyle is an option, Storie sets out to find herself and to create a solid foundation for her unborn child. Finally able to stand on her own two feet, Storie can't do anything but win. Then when she least expects it, fate sends Mikey into her life, to be what she so desperately needs and to show her what real love is.

Kami is enjoying every moment of married life after years of playing the sideline but when a blast from the past shows up, in the wrong place at the wrong time, he puts Kami in a position to lose the man who owns her heart.

Zena is scandalous, with a capital "S". She uses her body as a means to an end, thinking it is going to get her somewhere. Unfortunately for her, scheming on a new man lands her in a very compromising position with no way out and it forces her to face her demons.

When it's all said and done, these three Queens are in a race against time, to take the throne or fall from grace.
