The Royal Family (Unseen Archives) Parragon Books

This is a special edition to mark the birth of Prince George Alexander Louis of Cambridge. Featuring photos from the announcement of the birth as well as William and Catherine proudly introducing their new baby son to the world on the hospital steps. With more than 600 superb photographs this beautifully illustrated edition charts historic occasions such as King George V's poignant visit to the battlefields of World War I, the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations and the Olympic and Para-Olympic Games, where members of the Royal Family were seen at many of the venues cheering on Team GB and even competing in some of the events. With its blend of contemporary photography and nostalgic images this beautiful edition gives you a charming pictorial record of the many and remarkable achievements of this unique family.
