Killing Bliss: The Bliss Legacy - Book 1 EC Sheedy

One night. Two bullets. Three runaways.

Addy Michaels, living a reclusive life on a forgotten back road in Washington State, believes she's safe—that the past and its bloody corpses are long buried. It's been fifteen years. Surely the cops have given up looking for the street kids believed to have kidnapped a baby and killed their prostitute foster mother, Belle Bliss.

Addy is wrong.

The Bliss cold case becomes hot again, when the missing child's grandmother hires renowned profiler Cade Harding to find her long lost grandson. Brilliant and methodical, Cade soon tracks Addy to her safe haven. His goal is to bring a wanted criminal to justice and find the truth about a missing child—not have a misguided attraction to a smart, plain-speaking woman whose smile brings him to his knees.

An old and deadly adversary follows Cade to Addy's hideaway. His prey? Addy. The one person who can tell the truth about killing Bliss.

Threatened and scared, Addy doesn't know whether to listen to her well-honed survival instincts telling her to run, or trust Cade, the man who's already touched her heart but who remains committed to uncovering her secret. A secret that, if told, will put the lives of everyone she loves at risk.
