Miradas: Contextos para conversar y escribir Claudia M. Mejía, Conchita L. Davis

Miradas focuses on the acquisition of cultural competence and communication skills through innovative themes, culture, grammar reviews, and writing workshops. This text solves a variety of needs in the third-year Spanish course: developing reading skills, strategies for literary analysis, expanding vocabulary, consolidating grammar and writing proficiency, and offering connections with other cultural manifestations such as music and film, all within a communicative context. Miradas truly brings students from the high intermediate level to the advanced level of proficiency in the four skills, as defined by the ACTFL Guidelines.

Donald Jefferies:

As a university student, I exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or to make a summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that have reading as an internal or real leisure activity. They just do what the professor wants, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at it is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise, word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
