Social Media Marketing: 15 Days to Growing Your Social Presence Brian Eugene

As an entrepreneur and blogger, having a social presence has been vital to my success. It has provided me with valuable organic and free traffic to my various websites, blogs and products.

When I was first starting out I thought to myself ... social media marketing, how hard can it be? Well I soon found out that without a plan or a sense of direction it was more difficult than I thought.

I wrote this short, yet concise guide based off of the formula that I followed to successfully establish an online identity and promote free, organic awareness around my brands.

This guide is written with the social media marketing novice in mind however there are sure to be some pointers that even the intermediate marketer can use.

It is my hopes that you will find this guide informative and effective in assisting you in establishing your social media presence on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and beyond!
