Round N Around We Go: Has Cupid Gone Mad? Book Two (Volume 2) Belinda Elkaim

"Has Cupid Gone Mad?" is a romance drama novel series in the 'contemporary women' genre that highlights how women deal with their emotions and contradictions in love, life and career. Fictionalized and portrayed within the ever changing circumstances in the lives of the three main characters, Amber Winters (resurrected Broadway star), Taylor Gibbons (journalist) and Karina Sebastian (model turned painter), are progressions of twisted love drama and struggles of the modern contemporary women who find contradictions in self love versus romantic love. In a world where 'cake and icing' is no longer proprietary to the male gender, these artistically inclined women inhesitantly claim independence yet contrarily desire submission. Conflicted, aren't we all?  Excerpt From Book Two: Secrets secrets secrets - Some words are better left unsaid, but truth in the matter remains, we reap what we sow. In book two - Haunted by the phantom of her deceased boyfriend, Karina is confused as ever and attempts to lead a life which isn't hers to live. Taylor's ego clashes with Ivan's and accepts his challenge of a '90 Days Bet' which ends up in a cover up of her own misfortune. Amber's boy toy turns out to be an obsessive stalker who means nothing but trouble. Trouble prone, the three best friends struggle along and do the best they can, until someone gets badly hurt.
