Curtain Call: A Year Backstage in London Theatre 2016 Matt Humphrey, John Schwab

In this beautiful and groundbreaking book the reader is invited to go backstage with photographer Matt Humphrey and actor John Schwab as they present a side to London theatre that's never before been portrayed. With unparalleled access throughout the year, take a journey behind the scenes via Humphrey's striking reportage-style imagery and Schwab's revealing, insightful interviews. Actors are seen from an entirely fresh perspective, featured alongside crew members and musicians, reflecting the immense collaborative effort behind each and every performance. A visually stunning celebration of sixty productions, from innovative new works to time-tested family favourites, Curtain Call's inaugural book presents a vivid record of an extraordinary year in London theatre. For theatre and photography enthusiasts alike, with spectacular aesthetics, and flashes of intimacy and humour, this is a book that should be judged by its cover. 500+ colour and black & white photographs Foreword by David Suchet CBE
